

The One Day Breakthrough Workshop

This powerful one day workshop demonstrates a range of Hypnosis & NLP techniques to introduce participants to the power of the subconscious mind.

Rhondda will teach you:

- a number of self-hypnosis techniques to help overcome self-imposed limitations,
- how to harness the power of your subconscious mind for significant personal change
- how people filter and retrieve information - NLP
- the basis of effective communication - NLP

It is an excellent introduction to the power each of us has within ourselves, and includes demonstrations of Clinical Hypnotherapy in action, using volunteers from the audience.

Because of your interest in the course, we offer you this opportunity for only $99 including GST.

But we suggest you book soon because these workshops are limited and as you would expect, will fill up quickly.
